To whom it may concern

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Red Gravel Construction once again for their great work. Over a period of a year, we have used Red Gravel Construction for a few projects at our new home, from a small renovation to paving around the property. We also had them extend our pergola and change quite a few electrical fittings inside our house.

Every time we have made use of Red Gravel Constructions services, they have been prompt, neat and always a pleasure to work with.

Nothing has ever been too much trouble for Red Gravel and their team.

Once again thank you very much Red Gravel and Team.
